

JD STUDENT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This disclosure statement is required by Rule 4.241 of the Unaccredited Law School Rules adopted by the Committee of Bar Examiners and approved by the Board of Governors of the State Bar of California and must be provided to each new student upon payment of an application fee, but before payment of a registration fee, and to each returning student, prior to payment of any fee for an academic term. This disclosure must be signed by the student, who shall also receive a copy of the signed statement, and is retained by the school.

Pursuant to Guideline 2.3(D) of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules, Concord Law School of Kaplan University ("Concord") states:

The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally by technological means including interactive classes.

Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code § 6060(h) and Title IV, Division 1 of the Rules of the State Bar of California (Admission Rules) as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in this law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.

I acknowledge receipt of a copy of this disclosure statement which consists of 15 pages, including this signature page, and The State Bar of California Committee of Bar Examiners mandated Attrition Rates of Enrolled Students Sep 2012 – Sep 2016, for a total of 16 pages on the date listed below.

Residents of states other than California further acknowledge that the Juris Doctorate degree program from this law school does not satisfy the legal education requirements for admission to practice law in states other than California.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Student Number: _____

RETURN THIS SIGNATURE PAGE ONLY

JD STUDENT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. Concord Law School of Kaplan University is not accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California nor is it an American Bar Association approved school.
2. Concord Law School has not applied for accreditation in the previous five years to the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California or the American Bar Association.
3. The education provided by Concord Law School may not satisfy the requirements of other jurisdictions for the practice of law. Applicants should contact the jurisdiction in which they may wish to practice for that jurisdiction's requirements to practice law.
4. Concord Law School cannot guarantee the transferability of any credits to other institutions, including other law schools.
5. Concord Law School has not been issued a Notice of Noncompliance by the Committee of Bar Examiners.
6. The number and passage results of Concord Law School students who have taken the First-Year Law Students' Examination and General Bar Examination in the past five years where statistics are posted by The State Bar of California are as follows:

FIRST-YEAR LAW STUDENTS' EXAMINATION PASSAGE STATISTICS

Data Source: The State Bar of California

Exam Date	All Takers			First Timers			Repeaters
	Took	Passed	% Passed	Took	Passed	% Passed	Took	Passed	% Passed
15-Oct	108	20	18.5	52	11	21.2	56	9	16.1
15-Jun	127	26	20.5	71	21	29.6	56	5	8.9
14-Oct	98	27	27.6	32	12	37.5	66	15	22.7
14-Jun	152	33	21.7	79	15	19	73	18	24.7
13-Oct	134	26	19.4	46	9	19.6	88	17	19.3
13-Jun	189	49	25.9	106	27	25.5	83	22	26.5
12-Oct	163	22	13.5	64	9	14.1	99	13	13.1
12-Jun	192	40	20.8	108	19	17.6	84	21	25
11-Oct	196	46	23.5	74	21	28.4	122	25	20.5
11-Jun	237	49	20.7	134	37	27.6	103	12	11.6
TOTAL	1596	338	21.2	766	181	23.6	830	157	18.9

 These totals (All Takers and Repeaters) include individuals who have sat for the FYLSE multiple times. The total number of first time takers reflects the actual number of Concord students who have sat for the exam. During the five-year reporting period of this form (June 2011 to October 2015), this number is 766.

Since Concord students started sitting for the First Year Law Students' Examination in October 1999 through the October 2015 administration, 3,402 students have taken the exam. They have an ultimate pass rate of 48.8% (1,083 first-time and 577 repeat-taker passers, for a total of 1,660 students passing).

After 2015, The State Bar of California limited the amount of information provided to schools regarding the FYLSE. The following FYLSE performance information is based upon a survey of current Concord students. Not all students may have responded and students who are no longer in the Concord JD program because they were beyond the first three administrations of the FYLSE were not surveyed.

FIRST-YEAR LAW STUDENTS' EXAMINATION PASSAGE STATISTICS

Data Source: SURVEY OF CURRENT JD STUDENTS (9.19.16)

Exam Date	All Takers			First Timers			Repeaters
	Took	Passed	% Passed	Took	Passed	% Passed	Took	Passed	% Passed
16-Jun	53	15	28.3	42	11	26.2	11	4	36.4

GENERAL BAR EXAMINATION PASSAGE STATISTICS

Data Source: The State Bar of California

Exam Date	All Takers			First Timers			Repeaters
	Took	Passed	% Passed	Took	Passed	% Passed	Took	Passed	% Passed
16-Feb	75	18*	24	28	13*	46	47*	5*	10.6
15-Jul	67	10	14.9	20	5	25	47	5	11
15-Feb	91	21	23	41	16	39	50	5	10
14-Jul	86	10	11.6	33	9	27	53	1	2
14-Feb	90	26	28.9	32	15	47	58	11	19
13-Jul	107	13	12.1	36	7	19	71	6	8
13-Feb	87	16	18.4	28	8	29	59	8	14
12-Jul	100	21	21	29	7	24	71	14	20
12-Feb	125	27	21.6	47	14	30	78	13	17
11-Jul	109	14	12.8	32	9	28	77	5	6
TOTAL	937	176	18.8	326	103	31.6	611	73	11.9

*Numbers extrapolated from data provided by the State Bar.

These totals (All Takers and Repeaters) include individuals who have sat for the general bar exam multiple times. The total number of first time takers reflects the actual number of Concord graduates who have sat for the exam. During the five-year reporting period of this form (July 11 through February 2016), this number is 326.

Since Concord graduates started sitting for the General Bar Examination in February 2003, 1052 graduates have taken the exam. They have an ultimate pass rate of 52.2% (367 first time and 182 repeat-taker passers, for a total of 549 graduates passing).

JD STUDENT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT (Continued)

7. The educational background, qualifications, and experience of the faculty and the names of any faculty or administrators who are members of the State Bar of California or who are admitted in another jurisdiction is as follows:

Concord Law School Academics—List

Faculty and Deans
Steven Bracci	Associate Dean of First Year Programs & Professor of Law
Alana DeGarmo	Professor of Law
James Dodge	Professor of Law
Shaun Jamison	Dean of Faculty, Assistant Dean of Information Services & Professor of Law
Scott Johnson	Professor of Law
Marty Pritikin	Dean
Kathleen Reagan	Professor of Law
Stacey Sharp	Assistant Dean of Students, Director of EJD Student Affairs & Professor of Law
Kiyoko Tatsui	Associate Dean of Administration & Professor of Law
Nidhi Parikh Vogt	Assistant Dean of Students

Adjunct Faculty		Deans Emeriti
Laurie Aronovsky	Professor of Law	Jack R. Goetz	Dean Emeritus
Jason Burk	Professor of Law	Barry Carrier	Dean Emeritus and Professor of Law
Scott Burnham	Visiting Professor of Law	Visiting and Supplementary Lecturers
John Cirolì	Professor of Law	Professor John Blum	Loyola University Chicago School of Law	Health Law
Jared Correia	Professor of Law	Professor Geoffrey Corn	South Texas College of Law	Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Evidence
Marc S. Cwik	Professor of Law	Professor Marci Kelly	Golden State School of Law	Taxation, Will & Trusts
Deena DeGenova	Professor of Law	Professor Laurel Leifert	Private practice	Community Property
Lynn Feldman	Professor of Law	Professor Lawrence Levine	McGeorge School of Law	Torts
Fred Galves	Professor of Law	John Moye, Esq.	Private practice; former Associate Dean, University of Denver; Past President, Colorado Bar Association	Contract, Corporations
Linda Hiemer	Professor of Law	Professor Douglas Whaley	Ohio State University	Commercial Law
Mary Jensen	Professor of Law	Instructional Support
Andrea L. Johnson	Visiting Professor of Law	David Cook	Senior Writing Specialist
Marc Jones	Professor of Law
Rob Landry	Professor of Law
Mark Lehnardt	Visiting Professor of Law
Edward Martin	Visiting Professor of Law
Jerry A. Menikoff	Professor of Law
Diane Schussel	Professor of Law
Robert Schwartz	Professor of Law
Christine Seymour	Professor of Law
Anna Richardson Smith	Professor of Law
Andrew Tallmer	Professor of Law
Terry L. Watt	Professor of Law

Concord Biographies

Laurie Aronovsky Professor of Law	Professor Aronovsky traveled extensively and taught English in Japan before starting law school at New York University. She began her legal career in California, litigating a wide variety of commercial litigation matters while volunteering in a temporary restraining order clinic for battered women. More recently, she practiced in the area of disability rights, involving high impact class action litigation in state and federal courts. Education: A.B., University of California, Berkeley; J.D., New York University School of Law Course: Legal Analysis & Writing State Bar Membership: California
Steven Bracci Associate Dean of First Year Programs & Professor of Law	Dean Bracci is a well-known lecturer and has been teaching law since 1979. A graduate of Whittier College of Law, he has served as the Academic Director for law school divisions of a number of legal publishers. He is an expert in examination techniques and has conducted writing and test-taking seminars nationwide. Education: B.A., University of California at Los Angeles; J.D., Whittier College of Law. Courses: Remedies, Capstone State Bar Membership: California
Jason Burk Professor of Law	Professor Burk has taught at Concord since 2001. He has been a member of the State Bar of Nevada since 1996 and practiced extensively in Insurance Defense in Las Vegas prior to relocating to Georgia in 2005. He was admitted to the State Bar of Georgia the same year. In addition to teaching courses in the first year curriculum at Concord, Professor Burk also practices law with a large multi-state firm. Education: B.A., University of Illinois; J.D., Drake University Law School. Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts State Bar Membership: Nevada, Georgia
Scott Burnham Visiting Professor of Law	Professor Burnham taught at The University of Montana from 1981 to 2010, and has been on the visiting faculty at many other law schools. He is teaching a Contracts Drafting course at Concord and is the author of The Contract Drafting Guidebook and Drafting and Analyzing Contracts. Professor Burnham is a member of the American Law Institute. Education: B.A., Williams College,; J.D. New York University; L.L.M. New York University Courses: Contract Drafting State Bar Membership: Montana
John Cirolì Professor of Law	Professor Cirolì has been with Concord since 2003. He is also Senior Litigation Counsel for the Pittsburgh Housing Authority and practices before all courts in Pennsylvania as well as the United States Supreme Court. During his career, Professor Cirolì was also general counsel for an international IT company and an assistant public defender in Pittsburgh in the appeals unit. Professor Cirolì practices in the areas of criminal law, administrative law, immigration, employment, contracts, government, and international law. He also studied European constitutional law at Trinity University in Dublin, Ireland, and Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic. Education: BA, Duquesne University; JD, Capital University School of Law Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, and Torts; Criminal Procedure; and Evidence State Bar Membership: Pennsylvania Federal Bar Membership: U.S. Supreme Court

Jared D. Correia Professor of Law	Jared D. Correia, Esq., is a Senior Law Practice Management Advisor at the Massachusetts Law Office Management Assistance Program (“LOMAP”). Prior to joining LOMAP, Jared was the Publications Attorney for the Massachusetts Bar Association (“MBA”), where he managed CLE Publications and the Casemaker research engine. Jared was a practicing small firm lawyer in the areas of general practice and disability law. Jared’s general practice covered a diverse range of legal subjects, including administrative hearings, personal injury law, family law, tax and property matters. Jared is a frequent speaker for local, regional, and national lawyers’ groups, and a regular contributor to local and national legal publications, including Attorney at Work. He is the author of the American Bar Association’s “Twitter in One Hour for Lawyers.” Education: B.A., Saint Anselm College; J.D., Suffolk University Law School State Bar Membership: Massachusetts
Marc S. Cwik Professor of Law	In addition to teaching at Concord, Professor Cwik is a private attorney practicing general civil litigation, with an emphasis in professional liability, personal injury, family law, construction law, medical malpractice and insurance defense. Professor Cwik has published several professional articles on family law and fatherhood, conducted a nationwide study on domestic violence and the response of clergy, and has testified before the Wisconsin Governor’s Commission on Families and Children on current legal issues facing families and children. Representative Publications: Cwik, M. S. (1999). The agunah divorce problem in Jewish society: Exploring the possibility of an international law solution. Wisconsin International Law Journal, vol. 17(1), pp. 109-144. Cwik, M. S. (1996). The many effects of rape: The victim, her family, and suggestions for family therapy. Family Therapy, vol. 23(2), pp. 95-116. Cwik, M., Lambert, J., & Bogenschneider, K. (1995). Father involvement: Policies and programs. Report to the Governor's Commission on Families and Children. Madison, WI: Office of the Lieutenant Governor. Education: B.A., University of Wisconsin-Madison; M.S., University of Wisconsin-Madison; J.D., University of Wisconsin Law School. Courses: Civil Procedure, Medical Malpractice State Bar Membership: Nevada, Wisconsin
Alana DeGarmo Professor of Law	Professor DeGarmo specializes in legal research and writing and has worked on a number of high profile civil and criminal cases, including death penalty cases. She has taught Advanced Criminal Procedure, Legal Analysis and Writing, Legal Research, and Computer Research; and writing skills in Torts, Contracts, Criminal Law, Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, Constitutional Law, and Real Property. She has expertise in curriculum and course development. She was previously a sole practitioner in California. Professor DeGarmo is a former officer in the U.S. Air Force and served as Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review at the University of La Verne College of Law, where she graduated cum laude. She is a licensed Real Estate Broker in California and Florida. Education: B.A., California State University; J.D., University of La Verne College of Law Courses: Introduction to Legal Analysis, Legal Research and Writing State Bar Membership: California
Deena DeGenova Professor of Law	Professor DeGenova has been with Concord Law School since 2003. In addition to teaching at Concord, she was most recently an Assistant Professor of Research, Writing, and Advocacy at Ave Maria School of Law. During her career, Professor DeGenova was also a staff attorney in the Florida Court System concentrating on post conviction motions; an Assistant Attorney General in the Office of the Attorney General/ Tampa, in both the Criminal Appeals department and in areas of dependency; and in private practice in the areas of family law and bankruptcy. Education: J.D., Pace University School of Law Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, and Torts; Criminal Procedure, Legal Writing and Test Taking State Bar Membership: Florida

James Dodge Professor of Law	Professor Dodge began teaching at Concord in 2000. He currently serves as Executive Director of the Illinois Legislative Reference Bureau, and is a Commissioner of the Uniform Laws Commission. A former prosecutor and a former assistant attorney general (Illinois), Professor Dodge previously served in the Illinois Senate President's Office as Parliamentarian and Deputy Chief Counsel to the Senate President, where he helped write the rules for the impeachment trial of former Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich and was part of a multi-year project to re-write and modernize Illinois' Criminal Code and Code of Corrections. His most recent publications include "Limited Liability Partnerships" and "Formation of General and Limited Partnerships in Illinois" (both published by the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education). Education: B.S., University of Illinois; J.D., Southern Illinois University School of Law Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts; Legal Writing and Test Taking; Real Property; Wills & Trusts State Bar Membership: Illinois
Lynn Feldman Professor of Law	In addition to his teaching at Concord, Professor Feldman maintains a solo practice in appellate law. He also is an adjunct professor of law at UWLA School of Law teaching Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Legal Research and Writing. Selected publications include: Alabama v. White: Further Erosion of Fourth Amendment Rights, 22 UWLA L. Rev. 255 (1991). Education: B.S., University of Kansas; J.D., University of West Los Angeles School of Law Courses: Criminal Procedure, Community Property State Bar Membership: California
Fred Galves Professor of Law	Professor Galves was a tenured law professor at Pacific McGeorge School of Law for over twenty years, having recently retired from McGeorge in 2015. Following graduation from Harvard Law School in 1986, Galves served as a judicial clerk for Judge John L. Kane (U.S. District Court, District of Colorado). He later practiced with the Denver law firm of Holland & Hart. Professor Galves continues to teach at other universities here in the US and abroad. He has been a visiting law professor at several law schools: UC Davis Law School, Fordham Law School, Southwestern University Law School, and Denver University Law School. Professor Galves is also an Evidence casebook co-author. He runs his own litigation consulting business, Galves Consulting, and is heavily involved in Online Dispute Resolution (“ODR”). Education: B.A., Colorado College; J.D., Harvard Law School. Courses: Civil Procedure, Evidence, Advocacy, Oral Argumentation State Bar Membership: Colorado (inactive status)
Linda Hiemer Professor of Law	Professor Hiemer has served as a practicing attorney with a focus on business law including mergers and acquisitions, venture capital, securities and commercial litigation. She has held administrative and executive-level positions in institutions of higher education, including her prior service as Associate Dean of Curriculum and Legal Skills Programs for Concord Law School. Additionally, Professor Hiemer has spoken at national and international conferences related to legal education and digital learning and served as a consultant for online program development. Education: B.A; Lafayette College – Phi Beta Kappa; J.D., Pennsylvania State University, The Dickinson School of Law - Appellate Moot Court Board Member; Law, Science and Policy Award Recipient. Courses: Legal Analysis & Writing, Introduction to Legal Analysis State Bar Membership: Alaska
Shaun Jamison Dean of Faculty, Assistant Dean of Information Services & Professor of Law	Dr. Shaun Jamison is Concord's librarian. He is responsible for reference questions and is the topic leader for electronic legal research. Dr. Jamison formerly worked for Thomson West, starting as a reference attorney and eventually managing inside account managers and Westlaw telephone trainers. Prior to joining Thomson-West, Dr. Jamison was a solo practitioner in the areas of family, criminal, real property, and small business law. Dr. Jamison earned the Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) award and enjoys presenting at CLEs. He has served on numerous committees including Kaplan University's Institutional Review Board (IRB). At the Minnesota State Bar Association, he served as the chair of the Practice Management Section and co-chair for focus groups for the 2011 Self-Audit for Gender Equity and Diversity (SAGE). Education: B.S., National College; J.D., University of North Dakota. Ph.D., Capella University Courses: The Future of Law Practice; Cyberlaw; Legal Research State Bar Membership: Minnesota

Mary Jensen Professor of Law	In addition to teaching Legal Analysis & Writing at Concord, Professor Jensen serves as an adjunct professor of legal writing at BYU, where she received her law degree. She maintains an active legal practice specializing primarily in adoptions, estate planning, and business organizations. Education: B.A., MLS & J.D., Brigham Young University Courses: Legal Analysis & Writing State Bar Membership: Utah
Andrea L. Johnson Professor of Law	In addition to her work with Concord, Professor Andrea Johnson is a Professor at California Western School of Law where she teaches Business Organization, Telecommunications, Business Planning, and Administrative Law, and directs the CWSL Center for Intellectual Property, Technology & Telecommunications. Professor Johnson previously worked in business management and economic development in Washington D.C., where she also served as the Assistant Corporation Counsel; and in corporate litigation for a Wall Street firm. Her recent articles on telecommunications have been published in journals such as Journal of Law and Education, Law and Technology Journal, and Rutgers Law Journal. Education: B.A., Howard University; J.D., Harvard Law School. Courses: Business Planning
Scott Johnson Professor of Law	Scott F. Johnson is a Professor of Law with Concord Law School at Kaplan University. He is also a Hearings Officer with the New Hampshire Department of Education. Professor Johnson was previously in private practice with a focus in administrative law, constitutional law, education law, and health law. While in practice, he was involved in a number of precedent setting cases including Claremont v. Governor, the case establishing that all New Hampshire students have a constitutional right to an adequate education. He frequently appeared before administrative agencies, trial courts, and appellate courts. He is a member of the United States Supreme Court bar. Professor Johnson is the author of a number of articles and books in various areas of law including two casebooks in the education law area. He frequently presents at various professional development and continuing education programs and conferences including the Education Law Institute's Annual Conference. Publications: Education Law: A Problem Based Approach, 2nd Edition, with Sarah E. Redfield, LexisNexis Publishing (2013) Special Education Law, 5th Edition, with Laura Rothstein, Sage Publications (2013) Administrative Agencies: A Comparison of New Hampshire and Federal Agencies History, Structure and Rulemaking Requirements, 4 Pierce L. Rev. 435 (2006) Preventing Physical Restraints in Schools: A Guide for Parents, Educators & Professionals, Education Law Resource Center (2005) Focus on Equality Shifts to Adequacy as Brown v. Board Turns 50, Vol. 34 Your School and the Law Issue 34 (2004). New Hampshire Special Education Law Manual: A Guide for Parents, Educators, Advocates & Attorneys, NHEdLaw, LLC (2003). Reexamining Rowley: A New Focus in Special Education Law, Vol 2 BYU Education and Law Journal 561 (2003). Bragdon v. Abbott: Analysis and Implications for People Living with HIV/AIDS and Other Disabilities, 40 New Hampshire Bar Journal 1 (1999). HB 117: The State's Plan to Fund Educational Adequacy is Too Little Too Late, Vol 2. Issue 3 New Hampshire Law Bulletin (June 1999). Suing Under the Americans With Disabilities Act or Seeking Disability Benefits: A Hobson's Choice for People With Disabilities. Vol. 6, No. 1 Journal of Individual Employment Rights 49 (1997-98). Opening Up Attorney Disciplinary Proceedings: Here comes the sun. It's all right? 37 New Hampshire Bar Journal 10 (1996). Education: B.A. University of North Carolina at Charlotte, J.D. Franklin Pierce Law Center Courses: Administrative Law, Education Law, Health Law, Civil Procedure State Bar Membership: New Hampshire

Marc Jones Professor of Law	Professor Jones is an attorney with the Department of Homeland Security in the Immigration and Customs Enforcement division. In addition to litigating criminal immigration cases administratively in Immigration Court, he also prosecutes criminal immigration matters in federal district court, as well as argues criminal immigration appeals in the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Previously, he served on active duty with the Air Force for 10 years in the JAG Corp, where he was a criminal litigator. Although most experienced in the Air Force as a criminal defense attorney, he served both as a prosecuting attorney and a defense attorney. He has also worked at both the trial and appellate levels. Education: B.A. Northeastern Illinois University; J.D., Howard University; LL.M., George Washington University. Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts; Criminal Procedure, Evidence State Bar Membership: Illinois, Indiana
Rob Landry Professor of Law	Dr. Landry holds a B.S. degree from the University of North Alabama and the J.D. degree, magna cum laude, from The University of Alabama, where he served as the lead articles editor on the Journal of the Legal Profession. Dr. Landry also holds a Master of Public Administration from Jacksonville State University and a Ph.D. in Public Administration and Public Policy from Auburn University. Following law school, he served as Law Clerk to the Honorable James S. Sledge, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Alabama and he then entered private practice. Since 1996, Dr. Landry has practiced primarily in the bankruptcy, commercial and business law. He currently serves as an Assistant U.S. Bankruptcy Administrator for the Northern District of Alabama and is an Adjunct Instructor in the College of Commerce and Business Administration at Jacksonville State University where he teaches courses covering business law, business ethics and real estate law. Dr. Landry has published numerous articles dealing with bankruptcy law, ethics and public policy in journals such as the Mississippi Law Journal, Mercer Law Review, Journal of Business and Economic Perspectives, Memphis Law Review, American Bankruptcy Institute Journal and the Journal of the Legal Profession. Education: B.S., University of North Alabama; J.D., University of Alabama School of Law; M.P.A., Jacksonville State University; Ph.D., Auburn University. Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts; Real Property State Bar Membership: Alabama
Mark B. Lehnardt Professor of Law	Professor Lehnardt has been involved in international trade practice and policy for more than 10 years, with experience from the perspective of the court, the government, and the private sector. He clerked for the Hon. Delissa A. Ridgway on the U.S. Court of International Trade; defended the United States in trade remedy litigation before U.S. courts and the WTO Dispute Settlement Body; and represented private party interests in trade remedies cases before the U.S. Department of Commerce and U.S. courts. He has also participated as part of the U.S. trade remedies policy-making teams, and participated in technical exchanges with several Latin American countries to educate them regarding U.S. trade remedy law. Professor Lehnardt has previously taught classes related to international arbitration and international business transactions classes. Education: B.A. Economics, Brigham Young University; J.D., J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University. Courses: International Trade Bar Membership: Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Missouri, U.S. Court of International Trade, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit
Edward Martin Visiting Professor of Law	Professor Martin teaches Cyberlaw and Products Liability at Concord. He is a Professor at Cumberland School of Law, where he teaches Torts, Damages, Professional Responsibility, and several other courses in addition to Products Liability. A law professor since 1981, he is the author of Premises Liability Law and Practice (five volumes, Matthew Bender & Co., 1987-2006); Personal Injury Damages (John Wiley & Sons, Inc. 1980); and several other works, including co-authorship of Torts: Cases, Problems and Exercises (LexisNexis 4th edition 2013). Professor Martin is a CALI Remedies Fellow, and has authored and taught a number of online courses at Cumberland, including Products Liability and the Endangered Species Act. Education: B.S. University of Tennessee ; J.D. University of Tennessee; Research editor and assistant editor, Tennessee Law Review Courses: Products Liability and Cyberlaw State Bar Membership: Tennessee

Jerry A. Menikoff Professor of Law	Professor Menikoff holds a joint law and public policy degree from Harvard University, and a medical degree from Washington University. He currently works in the federal Office for Human Research Protections, Department of Health and Human Services, and has an appointment with the Bioethics Department in the Clinical Center of the National Institutes of Health. He has previously taught at the University of Kansas schools of Medicine and Law, Harvard University's program in ethics and the professions, the University of Chicago School of Law, Hofstra University School of Law, and University of Akron School of Law. He researches and writes extensively on bioethics, ethical issues within the practice of medicine, ophthalmology, tax, and other health care areas. Education: A.B., Harvard College; J.D. and M.P.P., Harvard University and Kennedy School of Government; M.D., Washington University (St. Louis) School of Medicine. Courses: Health Care Policy State Bar Membership: New York
Niki Mirtorabi Professor of Law	Professor Mirtorabi is a graduate of the University of Southern California School of Law where she was the Managing Editor of the Women's Law Journal. She currently holds a position as in house Counsel for Aetna Life Insurance Company where her main area of focus is group life insurance. Education: B.A. University of California, Los Angeles; J.D. University of Southern California School of Law; C.P.D. Wharton – University of Pennsylvania Courses: California Community Property State Bar Membership: California
Carole Peterson Professor of Law	Dean Peterson is the coach and faculty advisor to Concord's Moot Court Honors Program. Dean Peterson double majored in journalism and political science and served as editor in chief of the award winning Daily Trojan at the University of Southern California. She attended law school at USC as well. Her legal career began as a litigator with White & Case, before she became a federal prosecutor with the United States Attorney's Office in the Central District of California. She worked as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for more than ten years, prosecuting hundreds of cases in the areas of narcotics, gang violence, crimes against children and counter-terrorism. She has also written numerous appellate briefs and argued before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Back at USC, she has served as an adjunct professor for the School of Law, teaching Trial Advocacy. More recently, she has worked as a litigator, representing counties in civil suits brought against law enforcement officials. Education: B.A., University of Southern California; J.D., University of Southern California School of Law. State Bar Membership: California and Tennessee
Martin Pritikin Dean	With more than 15 years of professional experience, Dean Pritikin most recently served as the associate dean of Whittier Law School in California. While at Whittier, Mr. Pritikin won the law school's Teacher of the Year award (twice), and was the first to design and implement a hybrid online "flipped" classroom model. As an administrator, Mr. Pritikin founded and directed Whittier's Institute for Trial and Appellate Practice, served as the school's associate dean for experiential learning, associate dean of the law school, and acting dean. In 2013, he spearheaded the adoption of the school's "Experience the Law" curriculum, which was named among the 'Most Innovative' in the nation by National Jurist. In 2015, he launched the law school's incubator program, which provides recent graduates with the infrastructure and legal and business training to launch their own law practices. Previously, Mr. Pritikin spent several years practicing law with Quinn Emanuel in Los Angeles, where his clients included Lockheed Martin, Fox Studios, and Union Bank of California. He entered academia full-time in 2004 at Whittier Law School, where he has taught courses on evidence, advanced litigation, criminal law, and wills and trusts. He has maintained his connection to practice even while in academia, including as a summer volunteer at a prosecutor's office and as a consultant on a multi-year litigation against Lehman Brothers in bankruptcy court. Education: BA, University of Southern California; JD, Harvard Law School State Bar Membership: California

Kathleen Reagan Professor of Law	Professor Reagan was an assistant district attorney for eight years for the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office in Plymouth County, Massachusetts. During that time she prosecuted criminal cases up to and including murder cases, trained and supervised attorneys, handled appellate matters, and was chief of the District Courts as well as the Family Protection Unit. In addition to her Concord responsibilities, Professor Reagan is a sole practitioner of a law firm in Quincy, MA engaged in the general practice of law. Professor Reagan is on the Board of Directors of the American College of Equine Attorneys. Education: B.A., University of Virginia; J.D., Tulane Law School. Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts; Legal Research, Evidence & Criminal Procedure, Equine Law State Bar Membership: Massachusetts; Federal Bar Memberships: District Court of Massachusetts
Diane Schussel Professor of Law	Professor Schussel has worked in the area of affordable housing in Chicago and the Southeast. In addition to teaching legal writing, she taught art history at the undergraduate level prior to joining Concord. Education: B.B.A., University of Georgia-Athens; J.D., Emory University School of Law; M.A., University of Alabama-Birmingham Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts State Bar Membership: Georgia, Illinois
Robert Schwartz Professor of Law	Professor Schwartz has been on the faculty at the University of New Mexico since 1976. Professor Schwartz is a nationally recognized scholar in the area of Bioethics which he teaches at Concord. He is one of five authors of "Health Law: Cases, Materials and Problems," the first textbook that treated Health Law as a subject when it was first published in 1987 and the leading Health Law textbook in the United States. Education: B.A., Stanford; J.D., Harvard Law School Courses: Bioethics State Bar Membership: New Mexico, New York
Christine Seymour Professor of Law	Professor Seymour maintains, in addition to her work with Concord, an active practice in the areas of real estate, wills and estates, municipal law, school law and civil litigation concerning construction contracts negotiations, construction liability, consumer law, employment discrimination, civil rights, premises liability, professional liability, products liability, and personal injury. Professor Seymour has represented national department stores, school districts, municipalities and other local government agencies in litigation involving civil rights defense, employment discrimination, personal injury and premises liability. She has tried more than sixty cases to verdict in both first and second chair capacity and served as solicitor to municipalities, school districts and municipal authorities. Since 2010, she has served as a Hearing Officer for the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh. Education: B.A. cum laude, Washington & Jefferson College ; J.D. Duquesne University School of Law. Courses: Real Property, Wills and Trusts State Bar Membership: Pennsylvania
Stacey Sharp Assistant Dean of Students, Director of EJD Student Affairs, and Professor of Law	Before coming to Concord Law School, Dean Sharp practiced medical malpractice defense, representing doctors and insurance companies in Southern California. She also worked for BarPassers and West Bar Review, where she helped hundreds of law school students successfully pass the California Bar Exam. In addition to her duties as Assistant Dean of Students and the Director of the EJD Program at Concord, she continues her passion for helping students pass the Bar Exam in Concord's Bar Mentoring Program, specifically designed for the repeat taker. She also ushers in new students in the Fundamentals Program and follows their progress and performance during their tenure at Concord. Education: B.A., University of Southern California; J.D., Thomas Jefferson School of Law. Courses: Cross Professions Ethics, Introduction to Legal Analysis State Bar Membership: California

Anna Richardson Smith Professor of Law	Anna Richardson Smith is a labor and employment lawyer with the Virginia law firm of Kaufman & Canoles. She counsels small and large employers on compliance with federal and state employment laws, including the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act. Smith provides ongoing employment advice to institutional employers, including professional corporations, colleges, and public school systems, as well as representing private and municipal employers in federal and state discrimination cases at both administrative and judicial levels. Prior to private practice, Smith served as a clerk to the Honorable James E. Bradberry, U.S. Magistrate Judge, Eastern District of Virginia in Norfolk, VA. She is a graduate of Wake Forest University School of Law, where she was Senior Articles Editor of the Law Review and a Carswell Scholar. Education: B.A., Wake Forest University; M.A., University of New Mexico; J.D., Wake Forest University School of Law Courses: Employment Discrimination State Bar Membership: Virginia
Andrew Tallmer Professor of Law	Professor Tallmer has been involved in the public policy arena for much of his career including teaching and development of legal training for public safety agencies at the North Carolina Justice Academy. He has worked as Assistant Deputy Director at the New York City Mayor’s Office of Operations. He is also an experienced trial attorney having worked as an Assistant District Attorney in Nassau County, New York. Professor Tallmer has also worked as an attorney for the New York City Police Department. He has taught various law-related courses at undergraduate institutions. Education: B.A., Union College of Union University; J.D., Albany Law School. Courses: First Year Curriculum—Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts; Criminal Procedure State Bar Membership: North Carolina, New York
Kiyoko Tatsui Associate Dean of Administration, Associate Dean of the EJD Program, & Professor of Law	Prior to joining Concord, Dean Tatsui spent several years with the State Bar of California managing the Office of Client Relations and the Client Security Fund. Dean Tatsui has done numerous CLE programs, both during her tenure at the State Bar and when she worked for the Los Angeles County Municipal Courts. She is active in local bar affairs. Education: A.B. University of California, Los Angeles; J.D. University of California, Berkeley (Boalt Hall) State Bar Membership: California

Jeffrey Van Detta Professor of Law	Professor Van Detta was the Editor-in-Chief of his alma mater's Law Review, clerked for Judge Roger J. Miner on the U.S. Second Circuit Court of Appeals in New York (1987-1988), and then was in private practice for over 12 years at an international law firm based in Atlanta, Georgia. In his practice, Professor Van Detta concentrated on international business counseling, federal court litigation, labor law under the NLRA and RLA, and employment discrimination law. In 1997, two years after becoming a partner in his firm, Martindale-Hubbe bestowed on him its highest rating, A-V for his lawyering skills and his ethics. Professor Van Detta's work with Concord dates back to November 2000. He has published extensively in the law reviews on a wide spectrum of subjects. His coauthored article, Rethinking Liability for Vaccine Injuries, 19 Cornell J.L. & Pub. Pol'y 537 (2010) (with Joanna Apolinsky), was cited in Bruesewitz v. Wyeth, 562 U.S. 223 (2011). More recently, he has published the following articles: The Law School Of The Future: How The Synergies Of Convergence Will Transform The Very Notion Of "Law Schools" During The 21st Century From "Places" To "Platforms", 10 Bahçeöehir Üniversitesi L.J. __ (forthcoming 2015)(Symposium: Legal Education In The 21st Century, Istanbul & Ankara, Turkey, May 2014). The Strange Career of Title VII § 703(m): An Unfulfilled Promise of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 87 St. John's L. Rev. __ (Spring 2015)(Symposium Issue: "Title VII at 50")(forthcoming) Sexual Orientation, Human Rights, and Corporate Sponsorship of the Sochi Olympic Games: Rethinking the Voluntary Approach to Corporate Social Responsibility, 30 Utrecht J Int'l & European L. Issue 78 (Spring 2014)(special edition on Legal Aspects of Corporate Social Responsibility), available at http://www.utrechtjournal.org/article/view/ujiel.cf A Bridge To The Practicing Bar Of Foreign Nations—Online American Legal Studies Programs As Forums For The Rule Of Law And Pipelines To Bar-Qualifying LL.M. Programs In The U.S., 10 South Carolina J. Int'l L. & Bus. 63 (Fall 2013), available at http://scholarcommons.sc.edu/scjilb/vol10/iss1/5/ Some Legal Considerations For EU-Based MNEs Contemplating High-Risk Foreign Direct Investments In The Energy Sector After Kiobel v. Royal Dutch Petroleum and Chevron Corporation v. Naranjo, 9 South Carolina J. Int'l L. & Bus. 162 (Issue 2, Spring 2013)(lead article), available at http://scholarcommons.sc.edu/scjilb/vol10/iss1/5/ In 2013, Merkourios, Utrecht Journal of International and European Law, appointed Professor Van Detta as a member of its Permanent Board of Referees, based on his expertise and scholarly publications in the areas of Trans-National Commercial Law, International Business Transactions, International Civil Litigation, Private International Law, Employment and Labor Law, and Jurisprudence. Professor Van Detta is a member of the tenured faculty of Atlanta's John Marshall Law School in Atlanta, Georgia, where he is the John E. Ryan Professor of International Business & Workplace Law, and where he also serves as Associate Dean for Faculty Scholarship. Since 2005, he has served as a member of the State Bar of Georgia's Formal Advisory Opinion Board. Education: B.A., Union College (summa cum laude; Phi Beta Kappa; Robert G. O'Neale Prize For The Highest Standing In Classics); J.D., Albany Law School (cum laude; Justinian Academic Honor Society; Editor-in-Chief, Albany Law Review, Volume 51); LL.M., Foreign & Comparative Law, University of London (in progress; expected 2018). Courses: Civil Procedure, Commercial Law, Conflict of Laws, Corporations, Remedies State Bar Membership: Georgia; New York
Nidhi Parikh Vogt Assistant Dean of Students	Prior to joining Concord Law School of Kaplan University, Dean Vogt spent seven years as the Assistant Dean of Student and Alumni Relations at Whittier Law School in Orange County, CA. She ran and managed her own solo practice for a short period of time after law school where she specialized in trusts and estates. Dean Vogt also brings admissions and career and professional development experience from the University of Connecticut School of Law. Education: BA, Vanderbilt University; JD, University of Connecticut School of Law State Bar Membership: California

Terry L. Watt
Professor of Law

Professor Watt is a Director in the Tulsa firm of Feller Snider, P.C., in the IP group and a thrice-elected member of the firm's governing Executive Committee. His practice includes trademark, copyright and patent law and litigation, with particular focus on computer and software law. He has over 25 years experience teaching both law and technical courses for the University of Tulsa. He is a registered patent attorney.

Education: B.A., University of Tulsa , Mathematics; M.A., Princeton University, Statistics; Ph.D., University of Tulsa, Geophysics; M.B.A., University of Tulsa, Finance; J.D., University of Tulsa.

Courses: Patent Law Fundamentals, Patent Claim Drafting, Patent Application Drafting, Patent Litigation

State Bar Membership: Oklahoma

Admitted to Practice: Northern and Western Districts of Oklahoma, Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Deans Emeriti

Barry Currier
Dean Emeritus &
Professor of Law

Barry Currier became the Dean of Concord Law School in June 2004. He brought to the position more than 30 years of experience in legal education and the legal profession that helped Concord Law School of Kaplan University continue the growth in quality and reputation that was established by founding Dean Jack Goetz.

Dean Currier earned his B.A. from U.C.L.A. in 1968 and his J.D. from the University of Southern California in 1971. He served as a law clerk in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in 1971-1972. Thereafter, he practiced law at Latham & Watkins in Los Angeles, California.

Dean Currier began his law teaching career at the University of Kentucky College of Law in 1974. He spent a year as a visiting faculty member at Duke Law School (1976- 1977) and a semester as a visiting faculty member at Monash University Faculty of Law in Melbourne, Australia (1985). From 1977 to 1996 he was a member of the faculty at the University of Florida College of Law. There he was Associate Dean (1990-1996), Acting Director of the Graduate Tax Program (1983-1984), Professor of Law (1980-1996) and Associate Professor of Law (1977-1980). From 1996 until 2000, Dean Currier served as Dean and Professor Law at Cumberland School of Law at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. His academic areas of interest are land finance, and use planning, real property, and income taxation.

In 2000, Dean Currier became Deputy Consultant on Legal Education at the American Bar Association; located in Chicago, Illinois, the position he left to become the Dean at Concord. At the ABA, Dean Currier worked closely with the Consultant on Legal Education and the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar, the recognized accrediting agency for J.D. programs in the United States, on the law school approval and review process. He worked with various committees of the Section, including the Accreditation Committee, Standards Review Committee, and Bar Admissions Committee, on matters and projects of significance for legal education and the legal profession in the United States.

Dean Currier is a member of the Order of the Coif, the American Law Institute, and the Urban Land Institute. He is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. He has served on the Board of Directors of The Access Group, a company in the student loan business that is the major private lender to law students in the United States.

Dean Currier became Dean Emeritus and Professor of Law on March 15, 2010.

Education: B.A., U.C.L.A., J.D. University of Southern California

State Bar Membership: California

Jack R. Goetz
Dean Emeritus

The founding Dean of Concord Law School, Dean Goetz is a recognized expert in the field of online learning. His vision and expertise contributed greatly to the creation of Concord in 1998, and its subsequent growth.

Dean Goetz has been active with the Distance Education and Training Council (DETC) serving on the Board of Trustees, on a Task Force on Assessment of Learning Outcomes, as Chair of the Business Standards Committee, as well as Vice Chair of the Educational Standards Committee. In April 2002, the DETC recognized Dean Goetz with their Distinguished Recognition Award for outstanding contributions to the advancement of distance education.

The Board of Bar Governors of the State Bar of California appointed Dean Goetz to a three-year term as a member of the Law School Council, which advises the Committee of Bar Examiners on various law school education matters. Dean Goetz also serves as a member of the State Bar of California's Ad-hoc Task Force for Online Education, which is evaluating Internet legal education.

Education: B.A., San Diego State University; J.D., Boston University School of Law;
M.B.A., Pepperdine University

State Bar Membership: California

THE CONCORD VISITING AND SUPPLEMENTARY LECTURERS

The Concord curriculum also is enriched by Visiting and Supplementary Lecturers. Working with the Concord faculty, nationally known subject matter experts provide video lectures and guidance to the course content. The Lecturers have over 150 years of combined law teaching experience, are recognized experts in their field and have taught thousands of law students in their respective subjects. The Lecturers include:

Professor John Blum, Health Law
Loyola University Chicago School of Law

Professor Geoffrey Corn, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Evidence
South Texas College of Law

Professor Marci Kelly, Taxation, Wills & Trusts
Golden Gate University School of Law

Professor Laurel Leifert, Community Property
Private practice

Professor Lawrence Levine, Torts
McGeorge School of Law

John Moye, Esq. - Contracts, Corporations
Private practice, former Associate Dean University of Denver, Past President, Colorado Bar Association

Professor Douglas Whaley, Commercial Law
Ohio State University

8. The ratio of faculty to students for the previous five years has been:

- 2016 1 Faculty per 33.7 students
- 2015 1 Faculty per 29.14 students
- 2014 1 Faculty per 26.51 students
- 2013 1 Faculty per 25.19 students
- 2012 1 Faculty per 34.91 students

The ratio of faculty to students is calculated on data as of September 15 of the calendar year. The faculty to student ratio is calculated in accordance with the specific directives of Guideline 4.4 of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules.

THE STATE BAR OF CALIFORNIA
COMMITTEE OF BAR EXAMINERS/OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS

Concord Law School at Kaplan University⁺

Report Required by
Rule 4.241(A)(10) of the Unaccredited Law School Rules

Attrition* Rates of Enrolled Students in Subsequent Years of Law Study

September 15, 2012 – September 15, 2016

Students enrolled in this law school's J.D. Degree Program by year of study:

	First Year:	Second Year:	Third Year:	Fourth Year:
9/15/12:	444	199	99	94
9/15/13:	377	150	89	91
9/15/14:	356	135	64	85
9/15/15:	268	135	62	60
9/15/16:	183	111	42	58

* In accordance with Guideline 5.22 of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules: "A student who does not pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations after first becoming eligible to take the examination must be promptly disqualified from a law school's J.D. program." Other reasons for student attrition vary and include, but are not limited to, students voluntarily withdrawing from law school due to personal, family, business, career or financial issues and students who may have been dismissed by the law school because the students did not maintain academic good standing or who were unable to complete the mandatory curriculum requirements to earn a Juris Doctor degree.